LegalLeaks

WORKSHOP FOR JOURNALISTS IN ALBANIA
4/5 JUNE, 2014
TIRANA

Day 1: Access to Information and data journalism

09:30 Welcoming Remarks, Adeline Hulin, UNESCO Communication and Information Sector

Introduction and presentation: What is the Legal Leaks workshop?

Presentation of the trainers and trainees and explanation of the agenda.

10:00 What is the right of access to information and why is it important for journalists? Presentation of the Legal Leaks Toolkit, tips for journalists to access information. This session will include references to open data, data journalism, and data security for journalists.

Lead: Helen Darbishire, Executive Director, Access Info Europe.

11:00: Coffee break

11:30 Requesting information at the EU level: standards and practices. Discussion and feedback on the findings of the regional research/request project.

Lead: Victoria Anderica, Legal Researcher and Campaigner, Access Info Europe.

12:15 What is an access to information law and how can you use it? Analysis of the Albanian access to information law and its use.

Lead: Gent Ibrahimi, Institute for Policy and Legal Studies.

12:45 Introduction to Data Journalism. This session will make a first approach to what Data Journalism is and how the new technologies can help analysing big databases.

Lead: Aranita Brahaj, Open Data Albania.

13:30: End of the first day

Day 2: Ethical Journalism in the Information Era

9:30: Regulation vs. Self-Regulation: potential mechanisms and future challenges.

Lead: Lutfi Dervishi, self-regulation expert.

10:00 Codes of ethics and due diligence: how to do quality journalism

Lead: Lutfi Dervishi, self-regulation expert.

Debate among all participants.

11:30: Coffee break

12:00 Ethical journalism in the information era: The right to information, the right to reuse data, leaks, and whistleblower protection

Lead: Helen Darbishire, Access Info Europe.

13:00 Conclusions and wrap up

Lead: Helen Darbishire, Access Info Europe and Representative of local press council.

13:30 End of the second day