

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Evaluation Criteria	Punctuation
Public Interest: Achieving positive change in areas such as human rights, the rule of law and access to justice, transparency and citizen participation, anti-corruption and public integrity, or environmental protection and climate justice.	30
Inclusivity: Positively affecting disadvantaged or marginalised groups.	20
Collaboration: Partnering with individuals, organisations, or communities to amplify impact.	20
Inspiration: Encouraging others to exercise their right to access information.	10
Adaptability: Overcoming obstacles to enforce access to crucial information.	10
Sustainability: Ensuring long-lasting outcomes and continued benefit from the information obtained.	10
TOTAL	100

EVALUATION COMMITTEE

The candidates will be assessed by the Evaluation Committee, which comprises members of Access Info's Board of Directors and International Advisory Board:

- Carlos Cordero
- Carole Ewart
- Alexander Fanta
- Sergejus Muravjovas
- Ana Revuelta