

LegalLeaks

WORKSHOP FOR JOURNALISTS IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

10/11 JUNE, 2014

HOTEL BOSNIA, SARAJEVO

Organisation:

PRESS COUNCIL in BiH

in cooperation with:

European Commission, UNESCO, Access Info, SEENPM

Day 1 - Tuesday, 10 June, 2014: Access to Information and data journalism

12.00-12.30 Registration

12:30 Welcoming Remarks, Adeline Hulin, UNESCO Communication and Information Sector

Introduction and presentation: What is the Legal Leaks workshop?

Presentation of the trainers and trainees and explanation of the agenda

Media Self-Regulation vs. Regulation: including presentation of the Press Council – functioning, mechanisms, and future challenges

Lead: Ms Adeline HULIN, UNESCO Division for Freedom of Expression and Media Development

Ms Ljiljana ZUROVAC, Executive Director of the Press Council in BiH

13:30 What is the right of access to information and why is it important for journalists? Presentation of the Legal Leaks Toolkit, tips for journalists to access information. This session will include references to open data, data journalism, and data security for journalists.

Lead: Ms Helen DARBISHIRE, Executive Director, Access Info Europe

14:30 Coffee break / Refreshment

14:50 What is an access to information law and how can you use it?
Requesting information in Bosnia and Herzegovina
Understanding the BiH legislation for Free Access to Information

Lead: Ms Maja BRANKOVIC, Transparency International Bosnia and Herzegovina
Ms Borka RUDIC, Secretary General of the Association BH Journalists

Discussion

16:00 Refreshment break

16:20 Introduction to Data Journalism. This session will make a first approach to what Data Journalism is and how the new technologies can help analysing big databases.

Lead: TBC, representative from Media Centre Sarajevo

TBC, representative from CIJ, Centre for Investigative Journalism

18:00 End of the first day

19:00 Diner at the hotel

Day 2 - Wednesday, 11 June, 2014: Ethical Journalism in the Information Era

09:30 Opening of the Day

Codes of ethics and due diligence: how to do quality journalism

Lead: Ms Ljiljana ZUROVAC, Executive Director of the Press Council in BiH

Debate among all participants

Ethical journalism in the information era: The right to information, the right to reuse data, leaks, and whistleblower protection

Lead: Ms Helen DARBISHIRE, Access Info Europe

11:15 Coffee break / Refreshment

11:35 Requesting information at the EU level. Understanding the decision making process at the EU level and discovering what national information we can access using the Regulation 1049.

Lead: Access Info Europe

13:15 Conclusions and wrap up

Lead: Ms Helen DARBISHIRE, Access Info Europe
Ms Ljiljana ZUROVAC, Executive Director of the Press Council in BiH

13:30 Lunch

End of the second day / End of the workshop